Dangerous Slough Road Filled In By County Workers

MARTINEZ, April 8.—One of the arms of Hastings Slough near Ayon, scene of numerous automobile accidents during the last three years, is being filled in by crews working under County survey of R. R. Arnold.

Construction of heavy railing has provided the bridge spanning the slough with additional safeguards. The bridge is on a slight curve and motor is traveling at a high rate of speed often crash from the sides. A dozen cars have plunged into one of the other of the two channels during the last three years.

Supervisors plan the construction of a new span which will eliminate the turn and the filling in of one arm of the slough will cut the length of the proposed bridge.

"The REDEEMING SIN"

By VIRGINIA MORRIS
BASED ON THE STORY BY L.V. JEFFERSON

SYNOPSIS: Fleurette has believed Dr. Raoul de Boise responsible for the death of her brother although the guilty one is actually Jettur, the Apache. The girl grows to love the physician, but later they quarrel. Raoul is wounded in a thrilling fight with Jettur in the Paris streets and Fleurette believes him dead. She allows herself to be tricked into marriage with Jettur whom she loathes.

CHAPTER XII

NOT long after Fleurette's departure another visitor comes to the rectory. When Father Colomb recognizes Raoul he exclaims, "My boy, this is one of God's own miracles!" "A sewer worker rescued me," the doctor explains. "But first, Father, tell me if you have seen Fleurette." It is with great effort that the old man is able to let him know the truth. "She has married—married Jettur."

AT midnight Fleurette is in her room over the Cafe Paradis with the bridegroom she hates and fears. "Jettur," she tells him, "our marriage is a sin in the eyes of God. Come with me to the church and we will repent together!" "So you have seen de Boise!" the Apache sneers. Fleurette jumps to her feet. "Then he is not dead!" "No," the man taunts her, "I saw him near the church tonight."

THIS is the moment that Jettur

has been anticipating for years, the moment when Fleurette can be all his. She warns him not to touch her and climbs desperately to the window ledge. "If you come nearer, Jettur, I will jump!" As he stumbles toward her she makes good her threat. Soon after, two gendarmes enter the house. Jettur pulls his gun but a police bullet kills him.

YOUNG HEFLIN LANDS IN U. S. 'HAPPY'

NEW YORK, April 8.—UP—J. Thomas Heflin, Jr., son of the senator from Alabama arrived today aboard the liner Ancon from a vacation trip to Panama and was dissuaded by a narrow margin from calling immediately on his father's political enemy, Alfred E. Smith.

The vacation had done young Tom good and he was ready for friends and a frolic. He was full of tenderness and oratory and a vast happiness at setting foot once more on his native soil. He was so moved by the sentiment of the occasion that he attracted attention and several were there who said they had seldom seen a high spirited young man so joyful at getting once more on the rear side of the statute of liberty.

Young Tom also insisted on wearing ashore a lace Panama hat—a magnificent headpiece only a trifle less imposing than his father's famous campaign bonnet. But he misplaced his pink entry ticket and two baskets were lost for good—hostesses somewhere to the uncertainties of travel at sea.

Young Tom received reporters who had come aboard to interview a party of senators and congressmen with the greatest of warmth that made them feel a part of the happy homecoming. He cleared his throat and made a sweeping gesture with one hand.

"I am for prohibition," he announced, "but I am glad to get back into a country where you can get it."

"I know my old man's going to give me hell when he sees this in the papers but I can't help it. I have got to say it. I can be sticking by my old man all the time."

SOLOVY DECLARES HE'S SHOCKED

WASHINGTON, April 8.—UP—Senator Heflin of Alabama said tonight he was "shocked and grieved" by reports of his son's statement to reporters upon his arrival in New York from a trip to Panama.

"I am very sorry if he was intoxicated," Heflin said. "But as far as I know he has not had a drink for some time."

Heflin said he would welcome his son back to Washington in spite of his apparent misbehavior. He added that persons who had reported that Thomas Jr., in New York, "should have prayed for him instead."

WEED TRIAL TO BE HELD MAY 7

MARTINEZ, April 8.—E. M. Weed, Richmond jeweler, charged with assault with intent to commit murder, entered a plea of not guilty today before Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado. The charges are an outcome of the shooting through the cheek of Elmer Wyatt during a dispute in a San Pablo "chicken shack" several weeks ago.

Date for trial was set for May 7. Weed is at liberty on bail. Weed, according to police reports was brandishing a revolver when Wyatt entered and remonstrated with him. Weed is said to have become angered and to have pointed the revolver at the man. A bullet struck Wyatt a glancing blow on the cheek bone.

Prohi Shots At Norse Ship Opens Probe

WASHINGTON, April 8.—UP—The coast guard's method of signaling the Norwegian boat Juan by firing in her general direction as she moved up Chesapeake bay Friday, promises to become the subject of diplomatic exchanges between this country and Norway as soon as a complete report of the incident is received by Norwegian Minister Baehke here.

The minister today instructed the Norwegian consul-general in New York to send him at once the report of the incident made by the master and pilot of the Juan to the vice-consul in Baltimore Saturday. On receipt he will request an official report from the state department, he told the United Press today. Any further action he may take will depend, he said, upon instructions from his government.

Loaded Shells Used
In the meantime, it is apparent the coast guard's use of the 3-inch anti-aircraft gun in the incident is under investigation. Baehke, and it is considered probable he will suggest to the state department that less dangerous means should be employed. In a report from coast guard headquarters made public by Assistant Treasury Secretary Lozman today, it was stated that the Juan failed to heed either a signal flag flown by the patrol boat or the first shell fired, which was a blank. Loaded shells followed the first, according to the coast guard report.

The pilot who had boarded the Juan outside the Capes declared after docking the ship at Baltimore that no signal flag was visible and pointed out that the coast guard boat could have signalled them by radio as easily as by shooting.

Carrying only a cargo of bananas, the Norwegian had no reason to fear search, Capt. P. H. Scott, division commander of coast guard at Norfolk, stated that his men had no reason to suspect the Juan of smuggling liquor but were following orders by searching as many as possible of the ships entering the bay.

I'm Alone Protest
Canadian Minister Massey, who has been instructed by his government to protest the sinking of the schooner I'm Alone by a coast guard boat in the Gulf of Mexico March 22, probably will call at the State Department Wednesday. It was said at the Legation today that the I'm Alone incident is far more serious than the firing on the Juan, not only because the Canadian ship was sunk but because her first encounter with the coast guard took place outside territorial waters.

The French embassy, which reported to Paris the death of a French member of the I'm Alone's crew, has been advised that instructions are being sent here by mail.

LOCAL AIRPORT PREDICTED SOON

Report is to be submitted by the airport committee in the immediate future.

A general discussion of the airport situation as it affects Richmond was held with the expression of opinion that if Richmond expects to keep in the running as a progressive city of the Pacific coast she will have to provide proper facilities for the landing and taking off of airplanes.

Younce expressed the opinion that unless the city took immediate steps to insure the location of a modern airport here private interests would take the matter up.

Younce reviewed the airport situation in the northern part of the state, and the development that might be expected in the San Francisco bay area.

P. M. Sanford, president of the chamber presided at the meeting and presented the possibility of the government air base now under consideration by the Army might be located in Richmond. Several cities are making overtures to the government for the location of this field which will mean not only the immediate expenditure of $5,000,000 but a large annual payroll as well.

That some definite action must be taken immediately seemed to be the general feeling of those in attendance at the meeting who pointed out that at the present time Richmond was suffering because adequate landing facilities were not available for large planes such as are used in transcontinental and coastwise service.

Those in attendance at the meeting included: P. M. Sanford, William Metz, H. A. Johnston, W. W. Scott, Larkin Younce, Charles Renwick, George Rooker, L. J. Eby, Fred Parr, A. L. Paulsen, E. B. Bull, F. B. Schumann, J. F. Galvin, and E. M. Downer.

Members of the aviation committee who will make a close study of the situation here and make an early report and recommendations on available sites are T. M. Carlson, Larkin Younce, F. S. Newcom and C. W. Glick.

Fox Declared Out Of Post By Court Order

MARTINEZ, April 8.—Constable J. J. Fox of Crocker today heard Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado declare vacant the office which the constable has occupied the last 22 years. The action is a result of Fox being found guilty by a jury of accusations charging him with wilful misconduct in the shooting of Guy Cancellor, 39, a seaman. Fox lacks an appeal.

Fox must surrender his office on May 1, according to the court order. The time is allowed Fox to permit him to collect fees that may be outstanding and to terminate any pending business.

The office will be filled by an appointment by the board of supervisors.

The constable, according to a report, will attempt a "come back" at the next general election if the grand jury accusation does not erect a bar against him. Fox is said to make any comment on the report.

MRS. INMAN IN SENSATIONAL CHARGES

RENO, Nev., April 8.—UP—Essentials of domestic bliss for Walker P. Inman, New York millionaire, were "nearly three quarts Scotch whiskey a day and a good marriage," his wife testified in their divorce trial here today.

Testimony by Helene Patton Inman, the "baby" of a family of six raised in an Indiana parsonage, also included details of a visit to Cuba during which a night club was raided while she was present.

When court was adjourned until Tuesday she was still on the witness stand. She said her recital last Thursday.

Mr. Inman, in addition to condemnation of charges against her wealth, he said, sought during the day to lift blame against him for publicly that has attended the trial.

"I believe I posed for numerous newspapers," an attorney suggested after reminding her she had told him that the divorce he is suing as possible due to ill health of her father.

"I can explain that," she said, saying the newspapers had been using old pictures with old-fashioned hats and I wanted them to have a new picture of me posed."

CHEVROLET

And... goes high-compression!

its new owners should avoid hard carbon from burned oil

The fleet power of the new Chevrolet comes from a new high-compression type motor. No room in it for hard carbon. Note this cut-away cylinder—see how the piston comes right to the top! Where would you put the handful of coke-like carbon that old-style oils soon leave?

Even the costliest oils form more carbon. A sample of this oil, when burned, left more than three times as much as Shell Motor Oil.

An equal sample of Shell Motor Oil left only this small fraction of carbon—and it is soft carbon, not the hard, gritty, damaging kind.

AN ADVANCE in motor design—you hear of it everywhere. High-compression, higher powered motors; yet more economical, smoother running. Nearly all the cars built this last year or two are higher compression, among the newest and most notable the Chevrolet six, the announcement of which was repeated by millions of lips.

This modern trend in motors caught many oil refiners unaware! Their fine lubricants had a fault—serious when engines were roomy inside, but a positive menace in new-type motors. This fault is the tendency of their oils to form flinty layers of hard carbon. And there is no room for carbon deposits in the new high-compression motors.

Hard carbon causes knocking, engine strain, power loss.

Flakes grind like grit through tight pistons and bearings, wearing them away more rapidly.

Yet one motor oil meets new conditions squarely. It forms only 1/3 to 1/5 as much carbon as even the most expensive oils you can buy! The little it does form is soft and soot-like—a kind that blows harmlessly away through the exhaust.

It is Shell Motor Oil, a remarkable new lubricant. It withstands violent temperature changes without breaking down; keeps its sturdy body long after ordinary oils would disintegrate.

New day motorists acclaim Shell Motor Oil as the answer to the high-compression lubrication problem—keep away from hard carbon!

*Naturally, motor car manufacturers do not specify brands of oil. None is factory recommended for the new Chevrolet. But every modern car should have an oil that forms no hard carbon. Ask any lubrication expert.

SHELL MOTOR OIL

SHELL 400, THE NEW "DRY" GAS THAT BURNS CLEANLY AND KEEPS OUT OF THE CRANKCASE, IS THE IDEAL RUNNING MATE FOR SHELL MOTOR OIL. EVEN SHELL MOTOR OIL CAN BE RUINED BY "THINNING" WITH A "WET" GAS.

OAKLAND, L. A. SERIES DRAW INTEREST

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8 (U.P.)—Four teams of the Pacific Coast league were enroute to the north-west tonight for festivities that annually open the season in that region and they were to encounter the threat of rain and snow that may delay the start until Wednesday.

The Missions are to oppose Seattle in the Washington city and Hollywood will furnish opposition for the Beavers at Portland. Reports from Seattle and Portland said rain and snow were predicted by the weather bureau for tonight.

Interest of the week, however, will be attracted by the series in Los Angeles between the second place Angels and third place Oakland.

The league-leading Sacramento Senators will come here to engage in hostilities with the San Francisco Seals. Sacramento should hold its high position because the Seals have won only four games out of 13 played this season.

SINCLAIR MUST SERVE JAIL SENTENCE

WASHINGTON, April 8 (U.P.)—Just exactly seven years and a day from the signing of the Teapot Dome lease, the supreme court today decreed the first jail sentence growing from the new famous secrete oil investigations.

It decided today that Harry F. Sinclair, multi-millionaire oil magnate, must serve three months in the District of Columbia jail for refusing to answer questions of the senate public lands committee which investigated the case.

Sinclair was acquitted by a jury here some time ago on the major charge of conspiracy growing from the senate investigation of the lease signed by former Secretary of Interior Fall on April 7, 1922, though the supreme court itself in deciding the civil suit against Sinclair and returning the naval reserve in Wyoming to the government had declared that the whole transaction was tainted with fraud.

It is conviction on a minor related case, refusal to answer the senate committee's questions on March 22, 1924, which will place the man behind the bars of a jail here. Sinclair will be required to begin serving his sentence within a month. Under ordinary procedure the court's mandate will be sent to federal authorities in 25 days, at which time Sinclair will be called upon to surrender.

George P. Hoover, Sinclair's local attorney, declined to comment on the decision until he has examined it. The decision will be studied for possible grounds for appeal for re-hearing, he said, but it appears there is no likelihood the oil man can get out of going to jail.

SINALOA FIGHT ON BORDER LOOMS

MEXICO CITY, April 8 (U.P.)—The Mexican federal forces continued their advance from two directions on rebels retreating to the state of Sonora tonight. Minister of War Calles established headquarters at Guadalupe, in the state of Jalisco, to take charge of the western front offensive. The Sonora-Sinaloa border is expected to be the scene of the next encounter.

Reports from the advance columns said there had been no resistance from rebels who were defeated at Jimenez and Reforma on the central front and at several Sinaloa towns on the west coast. Meauwalle, Roberto Pesqueira, left for Naco, on the Sonora-United States border, to represent President Gil in dealing with the situation growing out of rebel attacks there. The insurgents have fired across the border and have dropped bombs in American territory, injuring or endangering Americans, according to reports here.

Calles conferred with Gen. Saturnino Cedillo at Lagos, Jalisco, before proceeding to Guadalupe. Cedillo was ordered south from Tercera last week to take charge of the federal movement against rebels in Jalisco and adjoining states. He led 5000 troops into the area, defeating small groups in minor encounters, according to press reports.

The fact that Calles moved from the central northern front where he has met with great success in shattering rebel troops, to the western front was taken to indicate that the minister of war intended to push the offensive which is moving northward through Sinaloa.

CAR STOLEN

Theft of a touring car owned by Victor Smith, 622 Franklin avenue from Ninth street and McDonald avenue was reported to the Richmond police department yesterday.

Thomas Motor Nine Beats Store Team

The Thomas Motors team of Richmond took the strong San Pablo Stores nine of Oakland into camp Sunday in Oakland by a score of 9 to 0.

The game was tight up to the sixth inning. Gordon went to third on Bernardo's single. Bernardo stole second on the first pitched ball. McCoy tapped a smart single to left and both runners trotted home. Hirs by Christiani and Bernardo and an error by Lorenzana, scored the third run for the locals.

Reports on the progress of the Junior baseball league in which Onetah tribe of Red Men will enter a team were delivered to the members of the tribe last night by I. N. Jarvis, sweaters for the team have already been secured.

Sunday morning on the Nichol park field, the juniors defeated the senior team of the tribe by a score of 5 to 3.

The farewell dinner tendered recently to William Casey, snapper who has left for Venezuela was reported to the members by the committee in charge.

Past Saturday's night will be observed April 22 with John A. Miller presiding. E. B. Lowery was appointed chairman of a committee to arrange for a social to be held next month.

More U. S. Troops Sent To Border

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 8 (U.P.)—A squadron of cavalry was ordered from Fort Bliss Texas to Fort Huachuca, N. M., today by Major General William Lassiter, commander of the Eighth Corps area.

General Lassiter said the movement was taken as a protective measure against revolutionary incursions on American lives and property in that section of the border.

The troops were ordered to proceed at once.

FULLER TENNIS PLAY STARTS WEDNESDAY

Play in the Pop Fuller trophy tennis matches will start tomorrow afternoon, according to H. L. Hunt, vice principal of the Longfellow junior high school who will be in charge of the play.

More than 20 players have been signed for the matches which will be played at the city hall court. James Hurley won the tournament last year and is a strong favorite to repeat his feat this year.

High Nine Will Meet Armstrong

The Richmond high school baseball team will mix with the Armstrong business college nine of Oakland at the San Pablo diamond this afternoon.

Accamazo will be on the mound for the local boys.

Lions To Hear Talk By Banker

Past president's day will be observed by the Richmond Lions' club today at the Hotel Carquinez with B. N. Tucker in charge. A. W. Moore, an Oakland attorney, will be the speaker of the day.

Rosy About Reds

Managing a baseball team that finished fifth in the league last season may not be something to boast about, but this fact hasn't taken away the characteristic optimism of Jack Hendricks of the Cincinnati Reds in regard to the future. He makes a cheerful forecast for the 1929 season just the same.

It is the claim of Hendricks that his team this year is better than his 1928 aggregation and that his team of last season would have won the pennant if misfortune had not intervened in the form of injuries.

Looking Good

The fleetest centerfielder in the American League has selected himself a nice cozy warm spot on the bench. Johnny Mostil, the tall hawk, has been shelved to make way for young Clarence Hoffman.

Just a great big boy with a great big bat, that's Clarence. Weighing 180 pounds and over six feet in height, he is exceptionally fast for a big fellow. Last year Hoffman distinguished himself with 540 put-outs in 186 games, leading the Pacific Coast League. He also used his height and weight to lambast the ball for the high, wide and handsome average of .335. The young rookie is 26 years old and was purchased from the Sacramento Senators for the large sum of $25,000.

SENATE OPENS JUDGE HARDY HEARING

enveloped the substance of the king's evidence. The defense claimed that unless Leveaux could submit the original notes taken by him during the interview with the judge, the article published in his paper could not be used by him to refresh his memory.

"Mr. Leveaux, what is the nature of your paper regarding printing and editing?" asked Judge Hardy, son of the judge who was examining Leveaux.

Associate Editor Walter Leveaux, a member of the board of managers, possessing the right, related to the question.

"Your honor, we are having the foundation of our possible improvement of the testimony of the witness," said Hardy.

Quotation Questioned
"We propose to show that the quotation of Judge Hardy's notes was not a verbatim statement of actual conversation, capable of use in a court of law."

Hardy went on to explain that a reporter had taken down Judge Hardy's notes and interviewed him and then wrote the article into direct quotation. The serious nature of a possible misstatement of the conversation was pointed out by Hardy in his next question to Leveaux.

"In the article published in your paper you say that my father told you he had received a check for legal services from Mrs. McPherson. Did he actually tell you that the money he received was for legal services?"

"Legal Services"
Leveaux responded that Judge Hardy had said the words "legal services."

The recognition of the check was a purely personal matter, Leveaux replied, Hardy was saying and had no connection with his office as a superior judge. The law allowed him to handle all the legal advice he had given Mr. McPherson, Leveaux said Judge Hardy told him.

After further discussion the article written by Leveaux was submitted in evidence. Court adjourned for the day following submission of the article and Leveaux will take the stand in the morning again.

Check Conference
Judge Hardy, Alvin Karpis, McPherson, and Mr. Minnie E. Kennedy participated in a conference with Brooke Hawkins, Los Angeles contractor, regarding payment of a check due him for construction work, he said on the witness stand today.

Assignment of a check to Hawkins was dictated to a stenographer by Judge Hardy during the conference, the contractor said.

"Isn't it a fact that the dictation of this document was a comparatively simple matter and did not require legal knowledge?" Frank Nimmo, one of Hardy's attorneys, asked Hawkins.

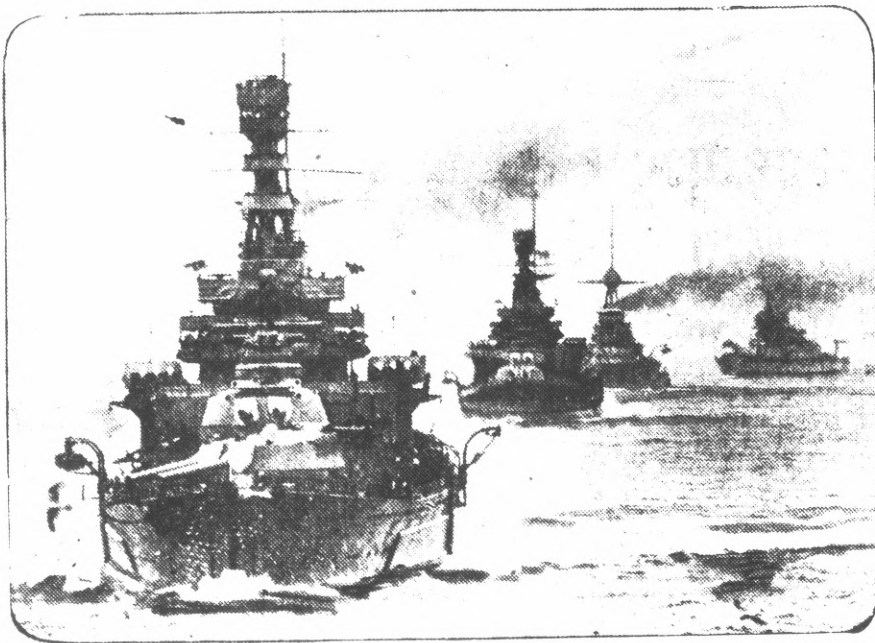

"Could you have dictated that document yourself, Mr. Hawkins?" "Yes, I could have, but I am very familiar with that particular phase of business," Hawkins answered.

Hardy Called

Traffic Officer In El Cerrito Enjoys Rat Hunt

A tale of a mischievous nimrod, one Traffic Officer Floyd Gilbert came out of El Cerrito yesterday.

According to the tale told at the first department, Mrs. Ora Burnett, wife of Lieut. Burnett of the El Cerrito fire department discovered a huge rat while cleaning house Sunday morning. The rodent lay in the sun upon the steps of the rear porch. Tippling away from the sleeping rat, she called for husband who in turn called Fire Chief Arthur Byrd. Chief Byrd then called Gilbert.

Drawing his trusty pistol, Gilbert crept to the windward of the rodent. A breathless pause, watchers held their breath—women fainted and strong men wept. Slowly but surely, like an avenging fate, Gilbert crept upon the rat. He raised his pistol "Blow!" and the rodent bit the dust.

"Good hunting," I call R. Gilbert remarked as he ejected the empty cartridge.
